

Special Collections

STANLEY, GEORGE F.G., 1907-2002.

George F.G. Stanley fonds.

[19--], 1907-1989.

0.625 m of textual records. - 0.41 m of realia.

Canadian author, educator, historian and public servant George Francis Gilman Stanley was born in Calgary, Alberta, on July 6, 1907. Educated at the University of Alberta and Oxford University, he served in the Second World War as director of the Canadian Army's Historical Section in London. He subsequently taught at Mount Allison University, University of British Columbia and Royal Military College. Dr. Stanley was a Companion of the Order of Canada, the recipient of twelve honorary degrees, Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick (1982-1987), designer of the Canadian maple leaf flag, and author of eighteen books and countless articles and book reviews. He died in Sackville, New Brunswick on September 13, 2002. Fonds consists of research notebooks, manuscripts, correspondence, degrees, awards and honours, and published works.

Donated by Mrs. Ruth Stanley in 2003.

Text in English.

No restrictions on access.

File level inventory available at repository.

For additional material relating to George F.G. Stanley see The Dr. George F.G. Stanley Book Collection.

Acc 745/03.10

Last update: March 2004

This page, and all its contents are Copyright (C) by the University of Calgary Library
